Harm Reduction
Medical Errors

Abstract: Interactive video training program. This program takes on a multitude of important and timely topics, including:
How systems fail
Teamwork, handoffs and communication
Creating just organizational cultures
The importance of board and executive engagement in supporting frontline healthcare professionals
Managing media coverage of medical errors Based on incidents drawn from real malpractice claims, the three-part First, Do No Harm® series presents the dramatic story of how a healthcare community responds when a healthy pregnancy turns to tragedy due to a series of medical failures. The interactive format and detailed facilitator's guides allow you to customize education programs, explore a wide range of issues and integrate expert commentary from recognized patient safety leaders.
